SOCIETY

The advent of Alameda night is always the signal for a pleasurable time to the patrons of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, last Friday proving no exception, it being made the occasion for a number of dinner parties. The lanais, both during the dinner hour and dance presented a gala appearance with their parti colored lights and graced with so many appropriately gowned ladies.

Mrs. E. B. Partridge entertained Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. G. Schmitt and Mr. Otto Wix. The Hawaiian national color—yellow—being carried out in every detail, the table almost hidden under its mass of golden bloom; the low similarly colored candelabra, and beautiful water-color name cards representing Hawaiian scenes—the work of clever Miss Fitz-Henry—mounted on yellow satin ribbon, completing the tout ensemble.

Mrs. Jack Hays Jr. had for her guests Mrs. Brady, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Watson, the color scheme of her table being red.

Mr. C. V. Gray entertained a party of five on the same evening, the decorations being red carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Routhledge, Miss Routhledge, Judge A. C. Hinkson and Miss Nellie Brandt, formed another party who thoroughly appreciated Alameda dinner and night remaining until the close of the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnes were the host and hostess of Mrs. F. W. Hardy and Miss Irene Aiken.

F. C. Stanford and Z. K. Meyers enjoyed the music during the dinner hour.

Mrs. R. Arendt, the mother of Jerome Arendt of Waipahu, who has been spending several months with her son and daughter-in-law, leaves for her home in Pleasanton, California, departing on the China.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rhodes gave a dinner Tuesday evening for Alexander Hume Ford, the magazine writer, who sailed yesterday by the Aorangi for Fiji en route around the world after a stay in Honolulu of about two months. The other guests were President and Mrs. Griffiths, of Oahu College, Walter G. Smith and Miss Edith Smith, Miss Lucas, Miss Blair, Miss Sprinks, Jacob Kotinsky and W. A. Bryan.

Miss Mary Maxwell of Fresno, California, arrived on the Alameda, and is a guest at the Hawaiian.

On Monday evening Major Van Fleet and the officers and ladies of the Third Battalion of the Tenth Infantry gave a dance at the Seaside Hotel that was the social event of the year. The hotel and grounds were beautifully lighted, the decorations being decidedly novel and military. Two gatling guns were drawn up on either side of the entrance, while a squad of soldiers par-

A-I FUNERAL AT KAWAIAHAO TODAY

Special funeral services over the remains of the late David L. A-I will be held at Kawaiahao church this afternoon in place of the quarterly review services which had been planned. The members of the Kamehameha Alumni Association, the Kamehameha students and the members of the Kaulikeaouli Society will attend in a body.

The remains will be taken this morning at 8 o'clock from the undertaker's parlors to the San Antonio Hall, on Vineyard street, where they may be viewed by the friends of the deceased. At three o'clock in the afternoon they will be taken to Kawaiahao church for the funeral service and will be interred finally in the Kawaiahao cemetery.

The pall bearers will be from the ranks of the Kamehameha Alumni and the Kaulikeaouli Society. President Ault of the Kamehamehas desires the members of the Alumni and the students to meet at their Fort street hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

WIFE BEATEN, MAN IN HIDING

Mrs. William Chapman, of Punchbowl, is in the hospital with a cut temple, a badly bruised body and possibly internal injuries as a result of a beating given her last night by her husband, who is a fugitive from justice, reported to be in the hills back of Punchbowl. The assault on the woman took place this morning shortly after one o'clock and according to the story told by the woman herself was entirely unprovoked. She told the police that she was sitting on the lanai of her home when her husband suddenly struck her, knocking her to the ground, cutting her temple and stunning her in the fall. While she was lying on the ground he struck her several times with his fists and kicked her on the body. Neighbors telephoned the police station and the ambulance with officers was sent up and the woman taken to the hospital. Chapman had made himself scarce before the police arrived.

At the hospital the attendants had some difficulty in persuading the woman to remain, she insisting on returning to her home, where her small baby needed her attentions.

trolled the approaches to ensure the privacy of the dance. Three hundred invitations were issued, and society turned out in force. At 11 o'clock a delicious repast was served on tables on the lawn.

Mrs. Henry E. Highton, though far away, has a strong aloha for Hawaii and keeps in constant touch with friends here. She sailed on the Lucania of June 29th for Europe for an indefinite stay.

On Tuesday evening a dance was given at the Seaside Hotel as a welcome to Major Samuel W. Dunning and the officers and ladies of the Second Battalion of the Twentieth Infantry who have been stationed in the local army post. Mrs. Dunning, who with the Major will be a decided acquisition to Honolulu society, looked remarkably well. The Tenth turned out in force to welcome their successors, as well as the representatives of the Navy.

Hamilton Hill, the Australian baritone, sailed by the Aorangi yesterday, having delighted, during his stay here, with a thoroughly enjoyable concert. He promises to bring a concert company here to give no less than two concerts. He is under engagement to appear at Keith's, New York, November 11.

The many friends of Miss Florence Desky will be glad to hear that she met with a hearty welcome and is enjoying a pleasant visit with relatives at Salt Lake City.

Congressman Littlefield, accompanied by his wife and daughter, are at present in Oakland. They are the guests of Mrs. H. G. Ayer at the Avondale, 534 Twenty-eighth street. The Congressmen and his family have just returned from a delightful trip to the Yosemite. They leave for home on Friday, by way of Yellowstone Park—Chronicle, June 18.

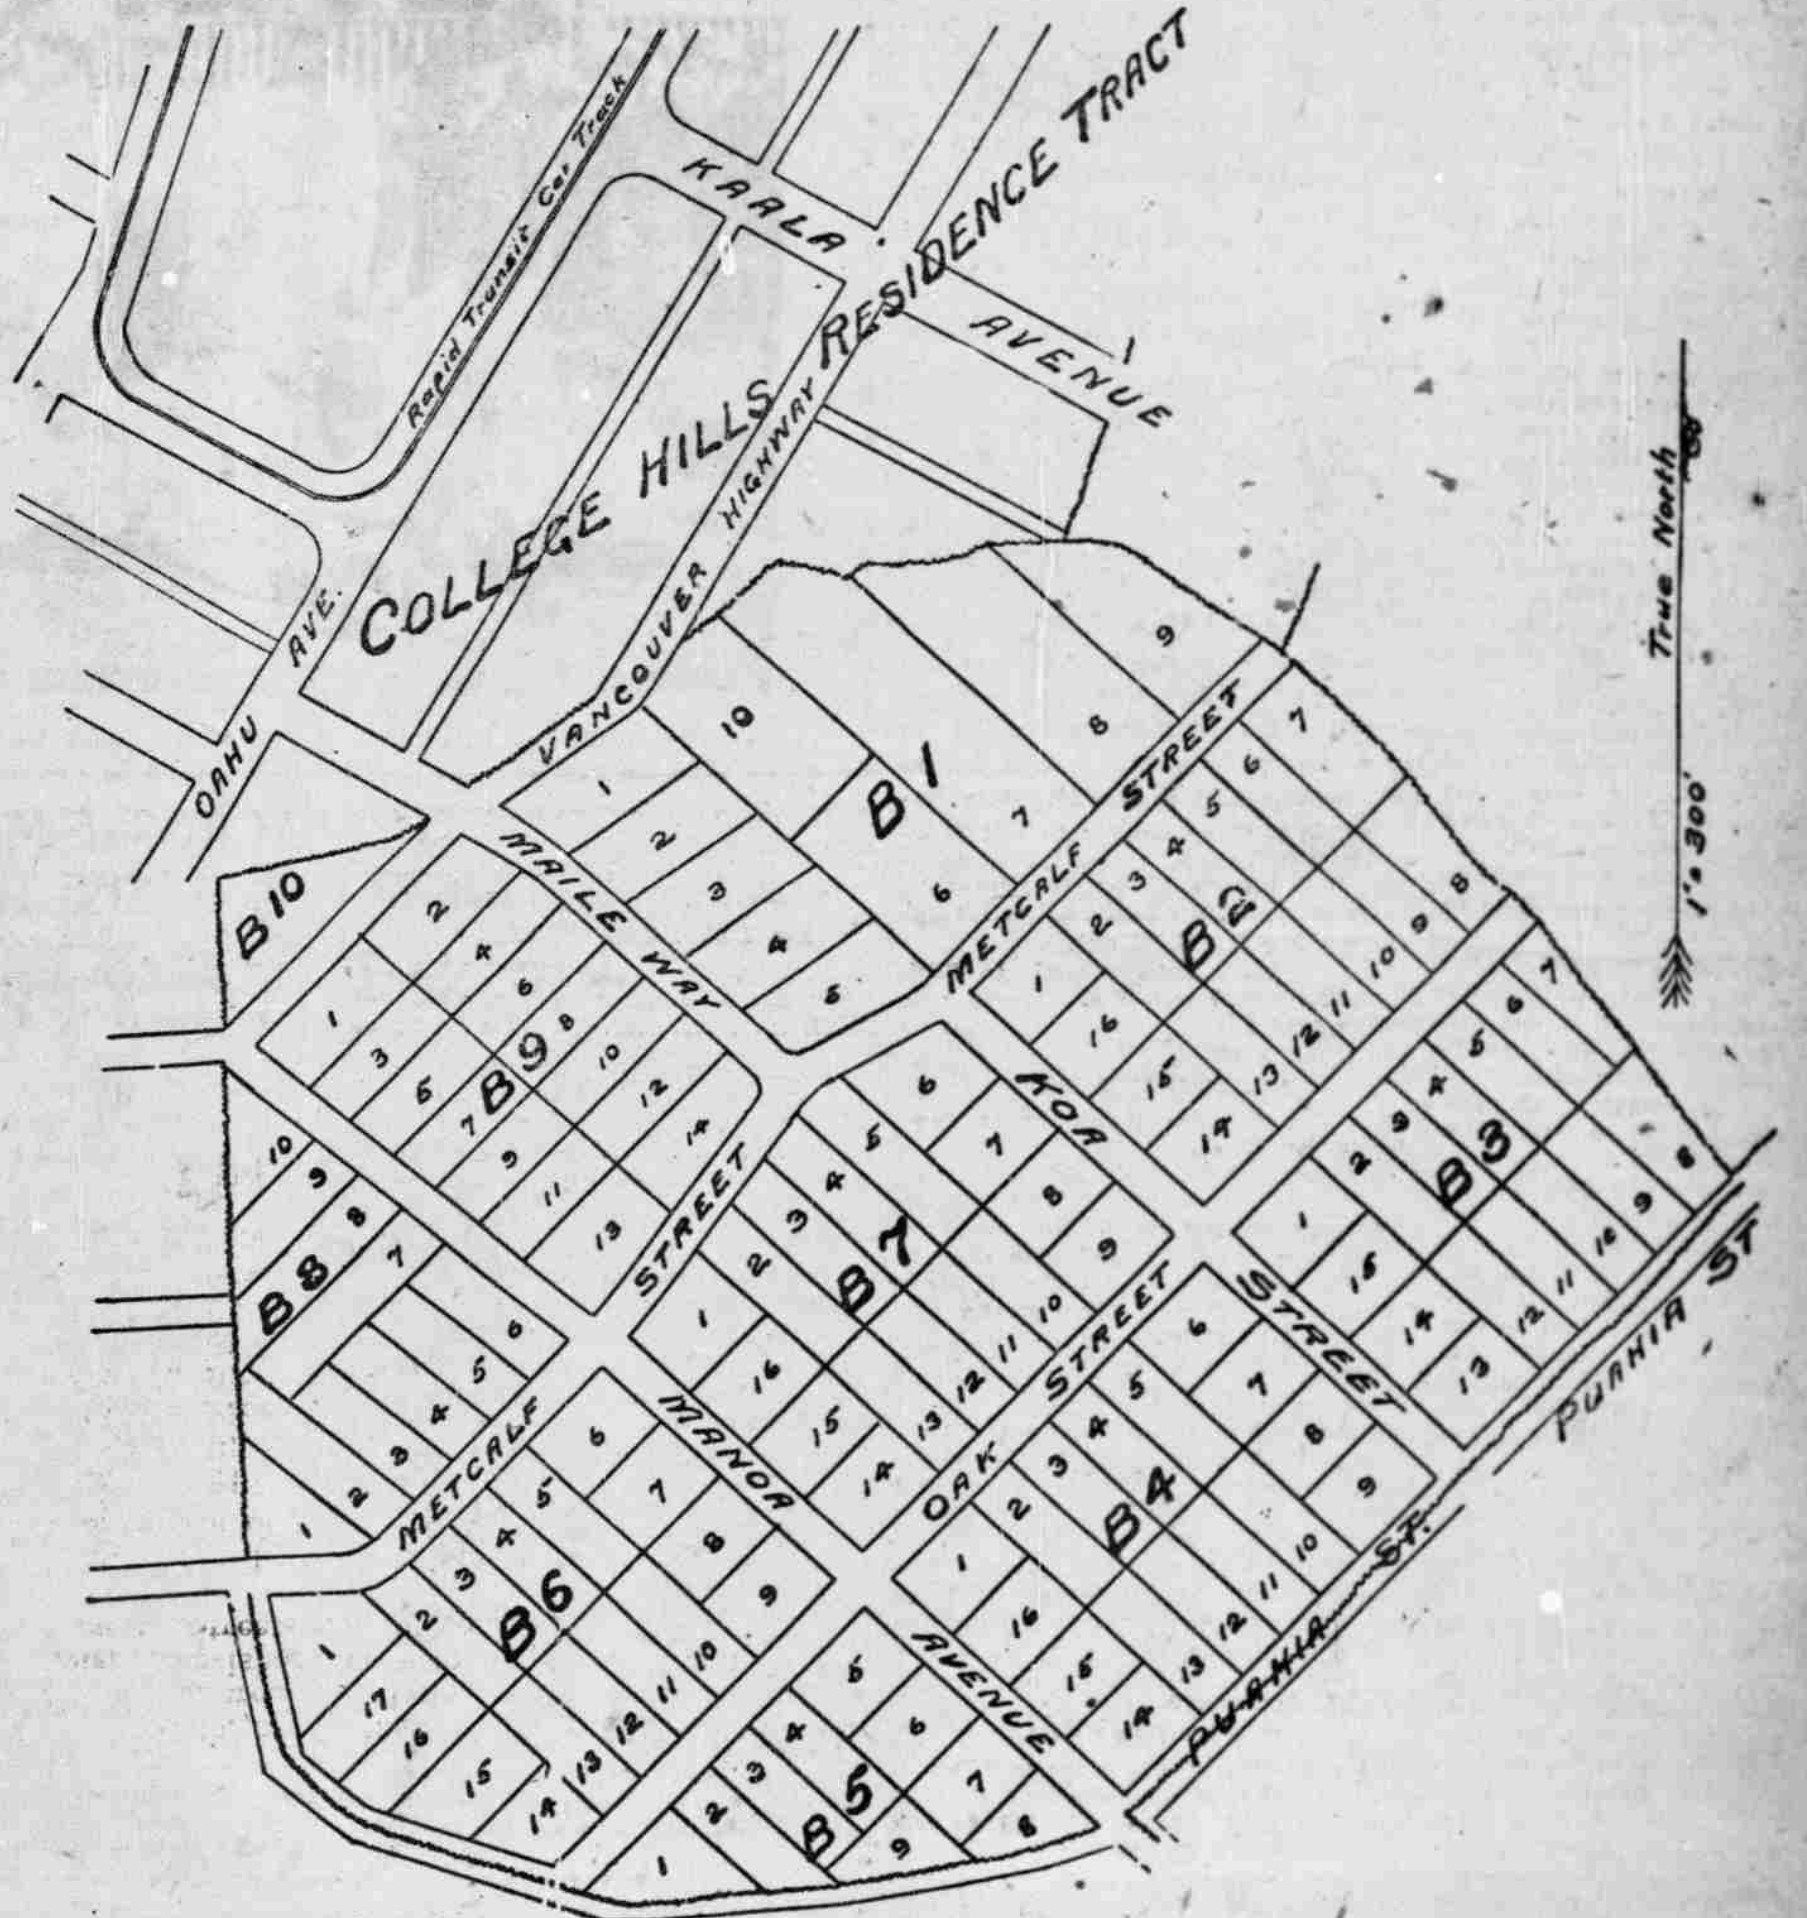

The monthly moonlight dance at Haleiwa last Saturday evening was the usual success. An exceptionally large number of people from Honolulu were present. Ewa and Waialua were also well represented. These functions are becoming one of the most attractive features of summer life in the islands.

Sunday last brought to Haleiwa the usual large number of people anxious to escape the heat of Honolulu. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mr. Jack Lucas and the Misses Lucas, Miss Pauline Aigleturmer, Mr. H. F. Wichman and family, Mr. G. H. von der Lieth and Miss Mauer, Commodore J. A. Lyle, Mrs. Sam Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kopke, Mr. W. F. Hellbron and family, Miss McLean and many others.

Miss B. Annis and Miss G. Moore of Spokane, Wash., are guests at the Hawaiian.

L. A. Thurston, J. P. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Alexander Hume Ford and Consul Canavarro were the members of an auto trip around the
